

1. God of all time in his dwell - ing place 2. Let God a - rise and his foes put to blest; u - nites those who dwell in his flight, Let those who would hate him now house, and gives rest. Be there for all peo-ple, and flee from his sight. To Fa - ther all glo - ry and give us, we pray, your strength and your laud we ac - claim, with Son and with might, Lord, for the length of our days.

Spir - it we wor - ship the same.

Text: Psalm 68:6-7, 36, 2; Deus in loco sancto suo; Introit Ordinary Time 17; adapted Greg Heislman, © 2015.
Tune: SLANE, 10 11 11 12.