

Baptism of the Lord

1. When the Lord had been bap-tized, o-pened were the heav-ens wide.
 2. You've loved jus-tice right-ful-ly, hat-ed all in i-qui-ty;
 3. Glo-ry now to God be giv'n, You who reign in high-est heav'n;

And the Spi-rit from a-bove, came down on him like a dove.
 There-fore God a-noint-ed you, with the oil of glad-ness new.
 And to Christ con-cord-ant-ly, At this great E-piph-an-y.

And the Fa-ther's voice rang out: "You, my son, be-lov-ed art."
 My heart ov-er-flows un-seen, well-ing up a good-ly theme;
 With the Spi-rit ev-er blest, prais-ing you, our end-less quest;

An-thems be to him, Most Blest, God in flesh made man-i-fest.
 I ad-dress my works and bring all be-fore the might-y king.
 Hymns of praise to you ad-dressed, God in flesh made man-i-fest.

Verse 1: Mt 3:16-17; Introit, Baptism of the Lord, (Roman Missal)

Verse 2: Ps 45: 8 & 2; Dilexisti iustiam, et odisti iniquitatem; Introit, Baptism of the Lord, (Gregorian Missal)

Verse 3: Doxology. All verses adapted Greg Heislman, © 2020. Tune: SALZBURG, Jakob Hintze, 1622-1702.