

1. Christ is made the sure foun - da - tion, Christ the
2. To this tem - ple, where we call You, come, O
Introit. I am tru - ly the sal - va - tion of all head and cor - ner - stone; Cho - sen of the Lord and Lord of Hosts, to - day; With Your stead - fast lov - ing - peo - ple, says the Lord. From what - ev - er tri - bu - pre - cious, bind - ing all the church in one; Ho - ly kind - ness, hear Your serv - ants as they pray; And Your la - tion un - to me their cry out - poured, I will Zi - on's help for - ev - er, and her con - fi - dence a - lone.

full - est ben - e - dic - tion shed in all its bright ar - ray.
heed their sup - pli - ca - tion, I will al - ways be their Lord.

Text: Angularis fundamentum, 11th cent, tr. John M Neale, 1818-1866. TUNE: WESTMINSTER ABBEY; Henry Purcell, 1659-1695 Psalm 37: 39, 40, 28, Ps 77; Salus populi ego sum; Introit, Ordinary Time 25; adapted Greg Heislman © 2014.