

Communion 18th Ordinary

Panem de caelo dedisti nobis
Adapted by Alex E. Hill

Panem de caelo dedisti nobis

SACRIS SOLEMNIS
Louis Lambilotte (1796-1855)

ANTIPHON (Wisdom 16:20):

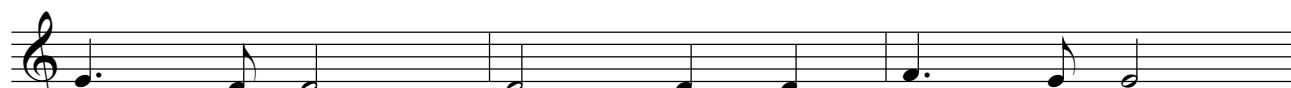

Lord, you have giv - en us heav - en - ly Bread for food,
Filled with de - light, and most sweet to our taste. Fine

VERSES (Psalm 78:1, 4, 23-24, 25, 27, 28-29):

1. Lis - ten, my peo - ple, hear; to my teach - ing
2. God rent the clouds a - bove, Man - na sent them
3. Man ate the an - gel's bread, with God's full - ness
4. Lo, where his peo - ple stayed food up - on the
5. God Fa - ther, glo - ry be, Son and Spi - rit,

1. bend your ear. What we have seen and heard,
2. in his love. He o - pened hea - ven's gate,
3. they were fed. Meat rain'd a - bun - dant - ly,
4. ground was laid. They ate and were ful - filled,
5. One - in - Three. As when the world be - gan,

D.C. al Fine

1. God's won - drous deeds and his word.
2. bread sent from hea - ven they ate.
3. Fowl like the sands of the sea.
4. And all their crav - ings were stilled.
5. now and for - ev - er, A - men.