

Let the Ones Who Know Your Name

Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Offertory Antiphon Hymn

1. Let the ones who know your name trust, Lord, in your grace.
2. Lord I will give thanks to you with a heart sincere.

You do not a - ban - don those who shall seek your face.
Tell of all your won - drous deeds in your pre - sence here;

Sing glad psalms to God who does on mount Zi - on dwell;
How I will re - joice in you, your name glo - ri - fy,

For the plead - ing of the poor he re - mem - bers well.
I will sing your praise a - loud, God the Lord Most High.

*Text: Offertory Antiphon, Gregorian Missal, Sperent in te omnes, Psalm 9: 11,12,13,1,2
Adapted Luke Massery © 2021 Tune: ADORO TE DEVOTE*

*Original Antiphon: Let those who know your name trust in you, O Lord; for you do not abandon those who seek you.
Sing psalms to the Lord who dwells in Zion; For he does not forget the cry of the poor.*