Alternate Antiphon, 1st Form:

Young children spread their garments out,
Hosanna to the King, they shout,
How blest is he, great David's son,
Who in the Lord's name now has come.

For the Second Form: The Solemn Entrance, these verses are specified, although other verses are still appropriate:

1. Christ to the Holy City came,
The Hebrew children did proclaim,
While waving palms they loudly cried,
Hosanna to the Lord, Most High.

2. When people heard the Lord had come
To enter old Jerusalem,
They went to see the Lord draw nigh,
While waving their palm branches high.
