

Benedictus es... in labiis (Ps 118(119):12, 13; 1-2 & 22a & 30b, 14, 29-30 & 32)

Sixth Week in Ordinary Time [OF]

1. For ev - er blest are you, O Lord; Teach me your just de - crees. My
2. Con - tempt and scorn re - move from them, The peo - ple you pre - serve; They
3. Be - cause I choose the way of truth, Your laws to me im - part; I lips shall then de - clare the way That you make known to me. How do not dare for - get your words, But your com - mands ob - serve. I run the way of your com - mands For you have grown my heart. For blest are they who ev - er keep The pure and per - fect way, Who take de - light in your de - crees As in the great - est wealth; Re - ev - er blest are you, O Lord; Teach me your just de - crees. My nev - er from the sac - red paths Of God's com - mand - ments stray!

move from me the ev - il way, Re - store my soul to health.
lips shall then de - clare the way That you make known to me.