Introit. Lord, have mer - cy, mi - se - re - re,

Like the wide-ness of the sea; There's a kind-ness Than the mea-sures of our mind. And the heart of Lord, have mer - cy on my soul. For I call out in his jus-tice Which is more than li - ber - ty.

the E - ter - nal Is most won - der - ful - ly kind.
all the day long: Lord, your mer - cy I ex - tol.

There is plen - ti - ful re - demp-tion In the blood that If our love were but more sim - ple We should take him
You are good, Lord, and for - giv - ing, Full of love to has been shed; There is joy for all the mem-bers at his word, And our lives would be thanks - giv - ing all who cry; Now in - cline your ear and hear me,

In the sor - rows of the Head.
For the good - ness of our Lord.
Poor and need - y, Lord, am I.
