

Saint Joseph the Worker

May 1st

Blest are those who fear the Lord, Ev - er walk - ing in his ways!

The first system of musical notation is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are: "Blest are those who fear the Lord, Ev - er walk - ing in his ways!". The melody is simple and homophonic, with the bass line providing a steady accompaniment.

By the lab - or of your hands, You shall eat, blest all your days.

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "By the lab - or of your hands, You shall eat, blest all your days.". The musical structure remains consistent with the first system.

Fa - ther, who the crown shall give, Sav - ior by whose death we live;

The third system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Fa - ther, who the crown shall give, Sav - ior by whose death we live;". The musical structure remains consistent with the previous systems.

Spi - rit, guide through all our days, Three in One, your name we praise.

The fourth and final system of musical notation concludes the antiphon. The lyrics are: "Spi - rit, guide through all our days, Three in One, your name we praise.". The system ends with a double bar line.
